

Unit Drilling Company Restructuring Customer Frequently Asked Questions (“FAQs”)

1. What was announced?

- Today, we announced that Unit Drilling Company (“UDC,” the “Company” or “we”), along with our parent company, Unit Corporation (“Unit”), and certain other subsidiaries of Unit Corporation entered into a Restructuring Support Agreement (“RSA”) with certain of the Unit’s senior lenders and bondholders.
- The restructuring transactions contemplated by the RSA will significantly reduce Unit’s debt by more than $650 million and provide Unit with enhanced financial flexibility.
- To implement the terms of the agreement, the Company has voluntarily filed for relief under Chapter 11 of the U.S. Bankruptcy Code in Bankruptcy Court in the Southern District of Texas, Houston Division.
- This agreement and the court-supervised process will enable Unit to restructure its balance sheet while continuing operations in the ordinary course.

2. Does this mean that UDC is going out of business?

- No. It is important to understand that this is a financial restructuring, and our operations will continue in the ordinary course throughout this court-supervised process.
- We expect to maintain current staffing and to pay go-forward vendor, and surety obligations according to the terms of our current contracts and consistent with applicable court orders.
- As part of this process, Unit has reached an agreement with its senior lenders to use cash on hand, a debtor-in-possession loan, and cash generated from operations to support the business during the financial restructuring process.

3. How will the restructuring process affect customers?

- This is a financial restructuring, and our operations will continue in the ordinary course throughout this court-supervised process.
- We expect to continue uninterrupted operations and provide superior service to our customers.

4. Why should I continue to do business with UDC?

- UDC’s commitments to customer satisfaction and safe operations are unwavering and will not change during the Chapter 11 process. In fact, we are more focused than ever.
- We took this action because we firmly believe that it is in the best interest of our customers and UDC’s future.
- We value the relationship that has developed with you and your organization and look forward to continuing our partnership well into the future.
- We are confident that we are taking the right steps to create a solid foundation for a successful future.

5. What is the expected timeline for UDC’s Chapter 11 process?

- We expect the Chapter 11 case to move on a relatively quick and efficient timeline.
- We intend to move through this court-supervised process with the support of our critical financial stakeholders as quickly and efficiently as possible.
- We are confident that we are taking the right steps to provide a solid foundation for a successful future.

6. How can I get updates and additional information?
